

Where Faith and Finance Intersect

Special Announcement

About Additional UCC Life Insurance for Plan Participants and Their Dependents

November 2020

Dear Colleague,

As a participant in the Basic UCC Life Insurance Plan, you are eligible to elect additional life insurance, for yourself and your dependents during the open enrollment period available now through November 30, 2020.

Optional Additional Death Benefits for yourself:

Additional amount of insurance that you may buy for yourself without a health review

$10,000

Maximum Additional Benefit allowed (subject to health review)

Lesser of $100,000 or three times salary

Optional Dependent Death Benefits for your spouse/partner and children (choose either Option 1 or Option 2):

Option 1

Additional $10,000 coverage for your spouse/domestic partner and $5,000 coverage for dependent children.

-OR-

Option 2

Additional $25,000 coverage for your spouse/domestic partner and $10,000 coverage for dependent children. Requires a Statement of Health form, which may be downloaded here.

Click the links below to download:

- a flyer containing FAQs and rate charts that show the cost of premiums for you and your spouse/partner and children as well as other information; and
- an Enrollment form.

To cover a partner, please complete the Domestic Partner Declaration portion of the enrollment form. To cover a dependent adult child with a physical or mental disability, please download and complete the Statement of Dependent Eligibility Beyond Limiting Age in Plan Due to Mental Retardation or Mental or Physical Handicap form.

For additional information, please refer to the booklet, Highlights of Your UCC Life Insurance and Disability Income Benefit Plan, available on our website. To review the