How distributions are taxed

In general, distributions made to a U.S. taxpayer are subject to federal income tax if contributions were not taxed at the time they were made. Thus, an individual generally pays income tax on any part of their distribution attributable to regular employer contributions, investment earnings and their pre-tax contributions on which income taxes have not previously been paid.

Housing allowance

You may not be taxed on that portion of the annuity or other distribution, if any, that is designated as eligible for a housing allowance paid to a retired minister.

If no after-tax contributions were made toward your annuity

The amount in Box 5 of Form 1099-R is recorded as “0” or left blank. If the Pension Boards’ records show that you made after-tax contributions to your account, you will receive under separate cover a letter indicating the amount of your after-tax contributions.

Determining allowable housing expenses

Eligible housing expenses for the year may be subtracted from the gross distribution reported in Box 1 of Form 1099-R.

If you own your home, your allowable housing expenses are the lesser of:

1. The fair rental value of your home (furnished, plus utilities); or
2. The amounts you actually paid in 2022 for:
 - Down payment on a home
 - Payments (including prepayments) on a mortgage loan to purchase or improve the home (including principal and interest)
 - Real estate taxes
 - Property insurance
 - Utilities (electricity, gas, water, trash pickup, local telephone charges)
 - Furnishings and appliances (purchase and repair)
 - Structural repairs and remodeling
 - Yard maintenance and improvements
 - Appurtenances
 - Maintenance items (household cleaners, light bulbs, pest control, etc.
 - Homeowners’ association dues

If you are renting your home, the allowable housing expenses are the lesser of:

1. The fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities); or
2. The total amount you actually paid in 2022 for rent, plus the cost of utilities and furnishings during the year and any items from the above list paid as a renter.

Cautions

If you have more than one home, only expenses from your primary residence may be used in computing allowable housing expenses.

If you are receiving a housing allowance from another source, the total of that housing allowance and the portion of your Pension Boards annuity payments designated as housing allowance cannot exceed the lesser of the applicable amounts above.

If you receive more than one pension or other distribution, if any, your housing costs can only reduce taxes on your benefit payments from the Pension Boards. Please contact the payer of the other pension to determine taxability.

After computing allowable housing expenses

Use the Taxpayer Prepared Supplementary Sheet #1.

- Insert the gross amount of your Pension Boards annuity from Box 1 of Form 1099-R in Line 5a (Pensions and annuities) of Form 1040 or Form 1040-SR.
- Insert your allowable housing expenses in Line 2 of Supplementary Sheet #1 and complete the remainder of that sheet.
- Transfer the amount in Line 3 of Supplementary Sheet #1 to Line 5b (Pensions and annuities—Taxable amount) of Form 1040 or Form 1040-SR, with the words, “SEE SUPPLEMENTARY SHEET #1.” This is the portion of your annuity or other distribution, if any, that is in excess of the allowable housing expenses and therefore subject to federal income tax.

If you did not receive information from the Pension Boards reporting your after-tax contributions (or if you wish to disregard them), and your only pension or other distribution is from the Pension Boards, you may use a completed copy of the enclosed Supplementary Sheet #1 as an attachment to your tax return. Be sure to retain a copy of the completed Supplementary Sheet #1 for your records.

Any income tax withheld from your Pension Boards annuity or other distribution, if any, is shown in Box 4 of Form 1099-R. Attach Copy B of Form 1099-R to your tax return to show the amount of tax withheld.

If after-tax pension contributions were made

If you have made after-tax pension contributions and your housing expenses exceed your annuity or other distribution, if any, under law you may be able to lower your taxes because the portion of your annuity provided by after-tax pension contributions is not taxed. Please consult a tax advisor familiar with clergy tax rules if this situation applies to you.

Supplementation and Ministerial Assistance

Ministerial Assistance payments are not taxable. This income is not included in Form 1099-R and does not need to be reported.

If you are disabled and under age 55

If you are receiving disability pension benefits and were under age 55 during the entire 2022 year, Distribution Code 3 appears in Box 7 of Form 1099-R. These payments should be reported (with other wages, salaries, tips, etc.) on Line 1 (Wages, salaries, tips, etc.) of Form 1040 or 1040-SR. Disability benefits should not be reported as pension or annuities until you reach age 55, the minimum non-disability retirement age for the Annuity Plan. Disabled ministers also may be eligible for the housing allowance exclusion.

For members whose annuity commenced in 2022 and who elected a Partial Withdrawal Option at retirement

Amounts distributed in 2022 under the Partial Withdrawal Option (as defined in the Annuity Plan) are considered an eligible rollover. If you chose to have this distribution made as a direct rollover, no income tax was withheld, and you will be issued a separate Form 1099-R for that for that distribution with distribution Code G appearing in Box 7 of Form 1099-R.

Self-employment (Social Security) tax

No self-employment tax (Social Security/SECA) is required to be paid on any part of your Pension Boards annuity or other distribution, if any.

Electronic filing

If you choose to file your tax return electronically, please confirm that the program permits supplementary documentation to be included with the tax return.
